

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. PUBLICATIONS 1884—1905

[1] 1.; volume II: x pp., [1] 1., 282 pp., [3] 11. Frontispieces.

Printed on German hand-made paper, from new Scotch type, at the De Vinne Press, in August, 1895.

Bound in olive green ribbed cloth, with device in gold on covers.

Volume I contains as frontispiece an etching by S. J. Ferris of the author in his youth, after the print by William Marshall. The frontispiece of the second volume, also an etching by S. J. Ferris, is after Lombart, representing the author at a later period. Surrounding each portrait are emblematic devices.

The edition consisted of 380 copies on paper, and three on vellum.

The subscription price was $12.00. Two vellum copies were sold at auction at the Annual Meeting, January 23, 1896, bringing $85.00 and $100.00. The third is in the Club Library.*

In the preface to this edition, Mr. Charles Eliot Norton writes: "After the publication of the Boston edition, Mr. Lowell scored the margins of the volume with emendations, mainly of the punctuation, amounting to many hundreds in number. It seemed a pity that this work should be lost, and the Grolier Club undertook the present edition for the sake of preserving it. In order to give to this issue still further value, a comparison has been made of the texts of all the editions of the seventeenth century, from the first in 1633 to the last in 1669, and the various readings noted. This was done by Mrs. Burnett, the daughter of Mr. Lowell, and by myself with the result which is shown in the foot-notes."

XXXI

PORTRAIT OF BENJAMIN FRANKLIN (ETCHING BY HENRI LEFORT).

The size of the plate (engraved surface) is 12x16 inches, and the head is life-size, representing Franklin at the age of seventy-three years.

Printed in September, 1898, on Japan paper, with the device of the Club and the facsimile signature of the etcher. The remarque is from the rare terra-cotta medallion modelled from life (1777) by Jean B. Nini (1717-1786).

The edition consisted of 387 copies on paper, and four on vellum.

*.*The subscription price was $10.00. Two vellum copies were sold at the Annual Meeting, January 26, 1889, bringing $30.00 and $40.00. The third vellum copy was presented to the Metropolitan Museum of Art, and the fourth is in the possession of the Club.

The etching is after the painting by Joseph S. Duplessis. The original painting bears on its back, in the handwriting of the artist, the inscription "Peint par Duplessis pour obligé le Vicomte de Buissey." It was presented by Mr. George A. Lucas, of Paris, to the W. H. Huntington Collection of Americana in the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

The plates are artotype reproductions by E. Bierstadt.

The edition consisted of 400 copies on paper, and three on vellum.

The subscription price was $30.00 ($10.00 per volume). Two vellum copies were sold at the Annual Meeting, on January 25, 1906, bringing $150.00 and $140.00. The third is in the Club Library.*

The work was undertaken by a special committee of the Club. It contains 1088 titles, and is the second in the series of bibliographies of English writers, the first, issued in 1893, covering the period from Langland to Wither. The present volumes conform in style to that of 1893. At the end of the third volume is an index of printers and booksellers, and another of engravers, covering also the volume of 1893.
